

Deuteronomy: The New Generation's Covenant

Key Verse: 30:16 or 10:12-13

1:1 The setting	1 st Sermon What God has done	Preamble		Historical Prologue
1:6 History of Israel		Covenant History	Covenant Stipulations
1:46 Walking in the Wilderness
4:1 Urge to obey the law	2 nd Sermon What God expected of Israel	4:44 The 10 commandments		General Demands	Covenant Stipulations
6:1 Teach the law		Specific Requirements
7:1 Warnings
9:1 Israel provoked God
10:1 The tablets renewed 11:1 Blessing or curse, your choice
12:1 Worship God
14:3 What to eat? "The Menu"
14:22 Laws for tithes, the poor + slaves
16:1 Laws for festivals, judges & appointing a king 18:1 Priests and prophets 19:1 Cities of refuge
20:1 Criminal, Military & Family laws
23:1 Ethical living
26:1 Responses for the blessings			3 rd Sermon What God will do	27:1 Declarations & curses
28:1 Consequences of choices	Leadership in the 29:1 Challenged to choose life
31:1 Joshua is commissioned		Covenant Continued
31:30 Israel's history in a song
32:48 Blessings & death of Moses

Who wrote the book?

Moses

When written/compiled?

Shortly before Moses death
1405 BC

From where?

Plains of Moab

To whom (OR/OH)?

The Israelites growing up in the wilderness - and the ones that are entering the promised land

Main Idea?

To be kept as a witness and a remembrance to the people.
God's heart behind the law

Why written?

To give the new generation a review of their history, and the covenant. Telling them what happened in the wilderness and the law. To show God's heart for his people.